

Application No.: 10/666,933
Amendment Dated: February 9, 2006
Reply to Office action of: January 9, 2006

Amendments to the Claims:

This listing of claims will replace all prior versions of claims in the application:

Listing of Claims:

- Claim 1 (currently amended)
- Claim 2 (currently amended)
- Claim 3 (currently amended)
- Claim 4 (currently amended)
- Claim 5 (currently amended)

Application No.: 10/666,933
Amendment Dated: February 9, 2006
Reply to Office action of: January 9, 2006

CLAIMS[:]

What I claim as my invention is:

1. A cosmetic-plastic [covering for automobile created to replace a broken side/or a rear window] replacement window covering for an automobile is created to replace a broken side-door and/or in some cases certain types of rear car door windows for temporary use or pleasure, comprising of a durable transparent, impact-resistant plastic [or super strong plexiglass like, acrylic type plastic material having a central position sized and shape to substantially] sheet of material, said window being foldable sized and shaped to fit [snug] snugly and tightly into the automobile's side-door window [frame] frames and its molding, [for holding said plastic covering in position; fitting means for maneuvering said covering into proper position, within the molding of the door's window frame, each of said fitting means including a carefully cut out hand adjusted and managed in said sheets of material forming said pairs, in order to make said cover a whole and complete product; and each of said fitting means being separately formed and more so including a super strong adhesive tape attaching each said fitting making the said covering ready to be placed between the molding of the side/or rear door and window frame, stop means on said fitting means folding and unfolding manageability, when said fitting is housed into the door's window frame, it can prevent easy excess and damage to the said cover]. said molding operating in concert with the window to create said snug and tight fit to hold the cosmetic-plastic window covering for automobiles in its proper position, said foldable window once installed inside the car door's window frame and carefully shaped and cut-out to fit the vacant space of the original window, will stay securely in its intended position, said replacement window is constructed of a transparent plastic material which is completely transparent so as to allow unobstructed vision through said replacement window, and is comprised of foldable sections and is made-up of sections of said plastic material such as a plastic sheet of material and is joined together in certain section, and connected together by using a 2-inch wide transparent adhesive tape, said transparent adhesive tape, placed on one side of a section then the adjacent section to allow the product to properly fold and unfold, when being installed or removed from the car's window frame.

Application No.: 10/666,933
Amendment Dated: February 9, 2006
Reply to Office action of: January 9, 2006

CLAIMS CONTINUED

2. The removable [plastic cover] transparent replacement window [set forth] set-forth in claim 1, [whereby said stop means is a suit of said fitting's specified material having] has dimensions sufficiently trimmed, carved and carefully shaped so as to engage [said] the front side car door and the door's window frame and molding so as not to easily [pull-through between them]. pull down or loosen from its intended position.

3. The removable [plastic cover] transparent replacement window, [set forth] set-forth in claim 1, [whereby said fitting includes a pair of six (6) interconnecting body halves having a minimum of six (6) sections of said sheet type material of said taped parts contained there between the door's window frame]. can be supported by several strips of hook and loop type material or the like, said hook and loop type material being affixed to both the replacement window and the interior of the door window frame opening to cause the replacement window to stay firmly, securely and snugly in its intended position within the car door's vacant window frame, said hook and loop type fasteners or the like can be attached to the interior edges of the car door's window frame and exterior of the cosmetic-plastic window covering for automobile, to also provide security.

4. The removable [plastic cover] transparent replacement window [set forth] set-forth in claim 1, [also includes viewing means given in portions of said sheet type of material that sustains itself between said central body and each said pairs or sections, with said viewing means being placed properly inside door frame of window when said cover is properly positioned on said door and door window frame]. can be provided in various shades of tinted colors, for the purpose of personalizing the temporary repair.

5. The removable [plastic cover] transparent replacement window [set forth] set-forth in claim 1, [whereby said fitting can be used in various shades of tinted colors, for the purpose of making your personal automobile fashionable, having privacy and obtaining your own unique style]. is designed and created to fit the various makes of automobiles, said replacement window is reversible and being carefully shaped and cut-out can be used on the opposite side of the automobile's side door frame, for example the left or right side of the automobile.